

For more information, please contact:
Mercedes.altozano@ivi.es
<https://www.eshre.eu/Accreditation-and-Certification.aspx>

IVI Foundation Subspecialist Training Programme In Reproductive Medicine

Accredited by ESHRE

IVI Foundation Subspecialist Training Programme In Reproductive Medicine

Accredited by ESHRE

Tailored two-year training program in Reproductive Medicine for young clinicians specialized in Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Accreditation: is supported or accredited by the following Institutions:

- European Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (EBOG) .
- European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE) accredited.
- University of Valencia.
- Spanish Fertility Society (SEF).

Program Directors: Prof. Antonio Pellicer, Prof. José Bellver, Prof Antonio Requena and Profesor Juan Antonio García-Velasco.

Duration: 2 years.

Location: IVI-Valencia and IVI-Madrid.

Requirements:

- The candidate MUST be a specialist in Obstetrics & Gynecology.
- Candidates in the last period of specialization can be also considered.
- All the permissions to work within the EU in clinical Medicine should be available.
- Languages: English and Spanish.

Program:

- Accreditation subject to satisfactory logbook completion of syllabus requirements and confirmation by assessors.
- Specific educational targets per training fellow.
- Formalised education timetable and assessment/feedback from tutors.
- Exposure to patient clinical management, reproductive surgery, IVF laboratory, endocrinology, andrology, psychology, genetics, pathology, early pregnancy, ultrasound imaging, statistics, research, legal aspects and hospital management.
- Attendance to workshops, patient management sessions and paper discussion roundtables at the clinic.
- Attendance to at least one ESHRE meeting within the 2 years.

Contracts:

- A one-year full contract with the corresponding IVI Clinic for a total amount of which will include taxes and social security expenses.
- A second year funded with an extension of the contract or application to national or international research grants.
- Medical insurance: covered in contract.

Sponsors: IVI Foundation.

Documents to be submitted via ESHRE website:

- Completed Fellowship Interest Form.
- Current CV.
- Two Letters of reference – at least one letter should be from your current Program Director.
- Medical School scores or Dean's Letter/Medical School Performance Evaluation.
- OBGYN Certificate.
- EU working permit (if not EU citizenship).
- Current passport sized photo.

Selection of candidates:

- There is a scholar position per year.
- The application will open in June 1st and close on August 31st.
- A selection Committee will evaluate the candidates and decide by October 15th.
- The Committee will be formed by the Rector of the University of Valencia; The IVI Co-Presidents; The Director of IVI Foundation; The Clinical Director of IVI-Valencia and IVI-Madrid.

